

Call for Abstracts – WIRM World Congress 2027

April 1-3, 2027 | San Francisco, CA, USA

The WIRM World Congress 2027 invites the submission of abstracts for presentation at our upcoming meeting in San Francisco. This is a premier opportunity to share your research, clinical insights, and innovative ideas with a global audience of experts.

Presentation Formats

1. Oral Presentations (10 minutes): Selected from the most compelling abstracts.
2. E-Posters: All other accepted abstracts will be featured in our digital poster gallery.

Abstract Topics

Submissions are encouraged in all areas relevant to regenerative medicine and research:

Orthobiologics and Regenerative Medicine • Longevity and Healthy Aging • Precision Medicine • Emerging and Cutting-edge Therapies • Immunology and Immune Modulation • Nanotechnology and Biomedical Engineering

Original research is given highest priority, with additional consideration for case studies, clinical observations, and other evidence-based contributions. Abstracts should indicate the level of evidence to facilitate review.

Review Process

Abstracts will be evaluated by the WIRM Abstract Review Committee, with selections based on scientific merit, originality, and relevance.

Recognition

Certificates of recognition will be awarded to the authors of the best abstracts.
